

LOCAL MENTION

"It's fresh at Klein's."

Henry Eversole, of St. Louis, was an over-Sunday guest of B. H. Marbury.

Rev. J. P. McDonald will preach at Marvin Chapel next Sunday. All are invited.

It's fresh at Bethel's Meat Market. Rev. O. H. L. Cunningham is attending a Baptist Convention in St. Louis this week.

Mrs. W. L. Johns spent last Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Cole, at Blackwell.

At Klein's—bulk rolled oats. Tom Smith and family moved last Friday to a house in the south part of town, near the Jefferson school.

Supt. W. L. Johns is attending the Southeast Missouri Teachers' Association at Cape Girardeau the week-end.

Try our Fresh Sliced Dried Beef. It's fine, at Bethel's Meat Market.

The High School girls' basketball team will go to Flat River tonight to play the Flat River High School girls.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wood, of Fredericktown, spent last week-end here visiting H. W. Coffield and other relatives.

Flake hominy at Klein's. Dr. J. P. Clark, of Perryville, made a brief visit in Farmington Wednesday and favored The Times with an appreciated call.

Ben Howlett, of Poplar Bluff, passed through here last Friday night on his way home from Detroit, where he had purchased two Dodge.

Try some of Bethel's Veal. It is simply fine.

Miss Frances Tetley, who attends the Teachers' College at Cape Girardeau, is spending the week-end here with her mother and family.

A Halloween social will be held at the old McCormick home, on Columbia street. You should not fail to be there and see the "Chamber of Horrors."

Putnam dye at Klein's.

George B. M. Beatty and family left yesterday for St. Louis, where they will spend the winter. They will probably return to this city in the spring. Their many friends here hope that they will do so.

The thirty new Remington Typewriters purchased by the Chillicothe Business College last week are to be delivered in time for the completion of the new four-story-and-basement annex December 1st.

Pure country sorghum at Klein's. Banking students of the Chillicothe Business College were placed Monday with Clarence Savings Bank, Bank of Jamesport, and Arkansas National Bank of Heber Springs, Ark., two of these as posting machine operators.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holler returned Monday to their splendid camp on the St. Francis for another outing during the splendid weather they are yet expecting. May their stay there be most pleasant and enjoyable, is the sincere wish of their many friends.

New kraut at Klein's.

Mrs. Yancey White and Miss Marian Giessing attended the meeting of Confederate Clubs held at Sikeston this week, as delegates from the Fortnightly Club of this city. Miss Giessing remained for a few days visit with Miss Ruth Crowe.

Several from Farmington, including the football team, went to Flat River Tuesday afternoon to witness the football game between Flat River High School and Marvin College of Fredericktown. Flat River was victorious by a score of 13-0.

For something extra fine try some of that Veal Roast, Cutlets or Chops at Bethel's Meat Market.

Dr. A. F. Smith, editor of the St. Louis Christian Advocate, and in his boyhood a resident of Farmington, will speak next Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Southern Methodist church. Dr. Smith is a fluent and impressive speaker and the community is most cordially invited to hear him.

Plenty of shredded wheat at Klein's.

Sundy Lioles returned Wednesday from Poplar Bluff, where he spent several days in attendance at the trial of his brother, James Lioles, who was tried for killing his wife at that place last January. The verdict of the jury was ninety-nine years in the penitentiary. However, a new trial was secured.

New macaroni and spaghetti at Klein's.

D. F. Strahlman, who lives in the Libertyville neighborhood, on Tuesday had his right leg amputated above the knee. Drs. Watkins, Appleberry and Robinson, of this city, performing a successful operation. While Mr. Strahlman is about 60 years old, it had become evident that an operation was the only thing that would relieve him of the intense suffering he had endured for some time, as well as to prolong his life. Mr. Strahlman has lived in his present home for many years, has been a successful farmer and an unusually hard worker, and is well able to spend the remainder of his life in a quiet manner.

LATER—Mr. Strahlman died Wednesday night.

Heinz Pickles in barrels, Sweet or Sour, can be secured at Bethel's Cash Meat Market. You should not fail to try them. They are most appetizing.

W. W. Waters has sold the equipment of the Waters Job Press to L. L. Page, editor of the Bonne Terre Star, the deal being closed Wednesday. This relieves Farmington of an excess of job printing houses, as the two newspapers, both of whom have splendid jobbing departments, are well able to attend to all printing in this community. This sale will also be a relief to Mr. Waters, and will enable him to give his time entirely to his work in the County Clerk's office, as well as relieving him of considerable worry which his print shop doubtless caused him. This makes three printing plants that Bro. Page has recently annexed to his plant, which should give him an excellent equipment.

Gierse's
FARMINGTON, MO.

Mrs. W. C. Dillard was a St. Louis visitor Tuesday.

O. J. Mayberry drove to St. Louis Tuesday on business, returning the same day.

A reception of the U. D. C. was held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. O. J. Mayberry, complimentary to Mrs. Scrutfield, who was visiting in this city, and who organized this chapter several years ago. It proved to be a most enjoyable evening for all.

Mrs. G. E. Scrutfield left Wednesday on her return to her present home in Pittsburg, Pa., after a visit with Farmington friends. Dr. Scrutfield, who is still in the Government service, is in a large hospital in Pittsburg where many soldiers, who have returned mentally or physically deficient from shell-shock or other causes, are being treated and many are being restored.

An old man giving his name as Snelson appeared before the County Court Tuesday, stating that he had been chopping wood in Ste. Genevieve county, though he appeared to be about 80 years old. He stated that he had two sons living in Farmington, neither of whom would keep him, and a daughter living in Flat River, who was not prepared to keep him. The Court had him turned over to Mode Coffman, superintendent of the County Infirmary.

The Daylight Saving Law provides that all clocks must be turned back one hour to indicate 1:00 a. m. on next Sunday, October 26th. However, The Times would not advise anyone remaining up until such an hour for that special purpose. Turning back the clock or watch on the previous evening, or even the next morning, will answer all purposes. In fact we would ordinarily strenuously advise against staying up until the early morning hour. Few good purposes can be served by those who fail to be in bed at that hour.

This week we unloaded a car of barrel and sack salt—nice fresh goods—Klein's.

The Times management is sorry to learn that its splendid old friend, Capt. W. J. Elledge, who is carrying on splendid work in developing at least a part of the enormous wealth he is confident lies beneath Iron Mountain, was seriously injured in St. Louis the last of the week on his return from the East to negotiate a loan that was needed for properly developing that property. While this paper has been unable to learn the exact nature of the accident, which Capt. Elledge sustained, we understand that he had a leg broken, and will doubtless be laid up for some time.

You should go into Bethel's Meat Market if your appetite is sluggish. A look in his Refrigerator Show Case, at the many fine cuts of meats of various kinds, will certainly stimulate your digestive glands and cause hunger to overtake you.

J. C. Williams' Hudson car was taken out of his garage recently, while he and his wife were on their farm, and after it had evidently served the purpose of the party, or parties taking it, it was returned to its rightful quarters. Before it was taken out it had been jacked up off its tires, but whoever it was that used it failed to go to that trouble on returning it, which fact made it quite evident that the car had been wrongfully used. It may not be known to the party, or parties guilty of this, that such act constitutes a felony, with severe penalty if they are discovered. While they may be able to evade the penalty of their act this time—we do not know—yet if they have a desire to retain their liberty, one thing they had better "cut out" is stealing automobiles, even for a short ride. There are too many chances to locate the guilty parties to make this plan of outlavery safe.

COLLEGE NOTES

Miss Freda Schaeffer and Miss Minnie Herbst are absent on account of illness.

Miss Irene Cleve, who returned from Chicago a couple of weeks ago, is seriously ill at home. She gave up a good position in Chicago because of this illness.

Miss Nellie E. Clark of Leadwood left school this week. She will go to Colorado in a few days to accept a position.

Word comes to us that Marvin Meyer, formerly of Farmington, has received still another boost in salary. Marvin is in St. Louis.

Miss Freda Revoir will go to St. Louis the first of next week to accept a position. She was offered a position in Cape Girardeau but preferred to go to St. Louis.

Miss Rosa Burch, of Route 5, has enrolled and is getting along nicely in the bookkeeping department. Fred Schramm has returned to complete his business training. He is now working in the shorthand department.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to extend heartfelt thanks to friends of Farmington and vicinity for their many acts of loving kindness during the last illness of our precious wife and mother. Such acts reflect true neighborliness as much as did the beautiful flowers which always garnished the sick room and banked the grave serve as an uplift to low and depressed spirits. May God's richest blessings be with all for their loving sympathy and surpassing kindness.

W. S. MILLER AND FAMILY.

Howard Blackwell and Miss Katherine Hoelzel of near Melzo attended the ice cream social here Saturday night.

Miss Ada Heaton was guest of her sister, Mrs. H. C. Rhodes, a few days during the week.

The social, given by the Valles Mines school Saturday night, proved to be a wonderful success. It was given in the old school house, a very antique building, which has stood for fifty-odd years. Although it has not been used as a school for some years, many of the parents of today's school children attended school there and quite a number were present. As they looked on the walls they found initials carved there, which brought to them fond memories of their school days spent in the dear old school room of yesterday, and of pranks played on teacher and school-mate. The room was decorated with autumn flowers. The social was well attended and everybody reports a pleasant evening. The young men came with well filled pockets and we are glad to say were very few spenders.

Henry Knorrp, Chas. Bellville, Theo. Statzel and Walter Steward of Oakvale attended the social here Saturday night.

Chas. Buscher of St. Louis visited his father, J. A. Buscher, Saturday and Sunday.
